One-Day Tokyo Itinerary

About Tokyo

Tokyo, officially the Tokyo Metropolis, is Japan's capital and most populous city. It blends ultra-modern skyscrapers, historic temples, vibrant pop culture, and world-class cuisine. (Source: Wikipedia)

Main Sights (Explorative Mode)

- Asakusa & Senso-ji Temple – Tokyo's oldest Buddhist temple, lively Nakamise shopping street.
- Meiji Shrine – Serene Shinto shrine set in a forested area near Harajuku.
- Harajuku – Takeshita Street for youth fashion and crepes.
- Shibuya Crossing – Iconic scramble crossing and Hachiko statue.
- Tokyo Skytree – Tallest tower in Japan with observation decks for city views.
- Optional: Imperial Palace East Gardens or Ginza for upscale shopping if time permits.

Suggested Timeline

- 08:00–09:00 – Breakfast near your accommodation (convenience store or café).
- 09:00–10:30 – Travel to Asakusa; visit Senso-ji and Nakamise.
- 10:30–12:00 – Transfer to Meiji Shrine (via JR Yamanote line to Harajuku, then walk).
- 12:00–13:30 – Explore Harajuku and enjoy lunch (crepes, sushi, or ramen).
- 13:30–15:00 – Head to Shibuya (train); experience the crossing, Hachiko, and surrounding shops.
- 15:00–17:00 – Travel to Tokyo Skytree (via Tobu Skytree Line or JR + subway); enjoy the observation decks.
- 17:00–18:30 – Early dinner in the Solamachi mall or nearby Asakusa.
- 18:30 onward – Return to accommodation or explore nightlife if time allows.

Transportation & Costs

- Tokyo Metro 24-hour ticket: ¥800 (unlimited rides on Metro lines).
- JR Yamanote Line: covered by JR Pass if you have one; otherwise single rides ¥200–¥300 each.
- Approx. total transport: ¥800–¥1,200 for the day.
- IC Card (Suica/Pasamo): convenient for pay-as-you-go; ¥2,000 deposit refundable.

Budget Overview

- Accommodation (if staying overnight): Hostel ¥3,000–¥5,000 per night; Business hotel ¥8,000–¥15,000 per night.
- Meals: ¥1,000–¥1,500 per meal (breakfast ¥500, lunch ¥1,000, dinner ¥1,500).
- Attractions: Senso-ji free; Meiji Shrine free; Tokyo Skytree ¥2,100 (Tembo Deck) or ¥3,100 (Tembo Galleria).
- Estimated total per day (excluding accommodation): ¥5,000–¥8,000 (transport, food, Skytree).
- With hostel: ¥8,000–¥13,000 total.
- With hotel: ¥13,000–¥23,000 total.

Tips

- Get an IC card for seamless travel.
- Wear comfortable shoes; you'll walk a lot.
- Check Skytree opening hours and consider buying tickets online to skip lines.
- Convenience stores (7-Eleven, FamilyMart, Lawson) offer affordable, quality meals.
- Free Wi-Fi is widely available in stations and many public areas.

Enjoy your whirlwind Tokyo adventure!